Future Enhancement

There are many potential future enhancements for an NGO-based project, but here are a few ideas:

Online Donation Portal: secure and easy-to-use online donation portal to allow supporters to donate online.

Volunteer Management System: volunteer management system to help streamline the process of registering and managing volunteers.

Expand Payment Options: Expand the range of payment options to make donating easier for donors. For example, adding support for digital wallets such as PayPal or Google Pay, and accepting payments.

Choose a payment gateway such as Razor pay that will enable users to make donations securely and easily. Make sure to provide users with multiple payment options to cater to their preferences.

Seek feedback from donors on how the NGO can improve its programs and services, and use this feedback to inform future enhancements.

Conclusion

Helping Hand is a web application which is made for an NGO. Using this web application a user can donate the foods, clothes, money, medicines etc. without going anywhere at any time from any place. Volunteer can also connect to this NGO using this web application and can help NGO in taking & delivering things from the user who wants to donate. Even using this system user can register for event if he/she wants to celebrate the event at NGO but for this approval from NGO is must.
